

U.S. Financial Group LLC

Forensic & Insurance Accounting Services

U.S. Financial Group is a forensic accounting and consulting firm with a specific focus on insurance loss accounting and financial damage measurement. The primary emphasis of our practice is on providing professional accounting services to the insurance industry, companies and legal counsel. Our professionals possess the experience and expertise required to objectively quantify financial damages in a variety of losses or litigation situations.

Insurance Claims Practice

Our experience and expertise in supporting the insurance industry and companies includes analysis of damages arising from business interruption, property damage/inventory losses, product recall, fidelity losses, liability losses, and many others. These losses may arise in both first party and third party liability environments.

Litigation Support Practice

Our involvement in investigating and objectively quantifying financial damages also extends to the litigation arena. U.S. Financial Group can assist the legal team with consultation, alternative dispute resolution and expert witness testimony.

Catastrophe Response

In the immediate aftermath of major catastrophes or natural disasters, U.S. Financial Group has extensive onsite and offsite experience in assisting the insurance industry and companies quantify financial damages associated with these events.
